Part III. Narrative

Please use this section to tell us your story. The responses to the Narrative questions should be based on the type of grant requested:

- For General Operating Grant requests, answer from the perspective of your organization.
- For New or Continuing Program Grant requests, answers should be based on the goals and objective of the specific Program to be funded by the grant.

The prompts in italics are provided as a guide for your narrative. Feel free to use bullet points. The final optional question is open ended so that you may include additional information that you think is particularly important to your grant request.

What community issue does your organization/program address and how do you address it? ***

Provide a detailed description of your organization's mission-related activities or the proposed program you plan to offer to support women and their families in response to the community issue you identify. Tell us more about the population(s) you serve and their needs. Include information that fully describes the scope of your work and the rationale behind the program or services you offer. If applicable, tell us about any community partners with whom you collaborate and how those partnerships strengthen your work. We encourage you to elaborate in this section to help us appreciate your passion and purpose.

Character Limit: 2500

How do you know that your work is making a difference? ***

Please share how you currently evaluate—or plan to evaluate—the impact your work has on the lives of the women and families you serve. Be specific and include any documented outcomes or impactful stories from your participants. How do you apply what you learn to improve your program offerings?

How does your organization's leadership engage women and their families in the organization's work? ***

How are the individuals being served provided opportunities to actively participate in program development, delivery, or governance? How does the staff's first-hand experience with the community issue shape the organization's efforts and initiatives? How does the leadership involve residents within the geographic service area who have first-hand experience with the addressed issue?

- How has your organization's relationship with the community evolved?*
- How have the voices of the people you serve influenced your work?*

Character Limit: 2500

What else would you like to tell us that we haven't asked?

You are welcome to include links to other information. This question is optional.

Character Limit: 3000

Part IV. IRS Compliance

---

The following questions are for the organization providing the IRS 501(c)(3) Determination Letter to be submitted in Part V.

Name of the Organization Holding the IRS Letter of Determination ***

Character Limit 100

IRS Determination Letter ***

Upload the IRS Determination Letter confirming your organization's federal tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3). This letter may be for your organization, your fiscal sponsor, or the national or state organization that has the same name and mission as the applicant.

File Size Limit: 2 MB

IRS Form 990 *

Character Limit: 100

Part V. Financial Information and Required Documents

Please read the instructions in this section carefully. The required financial documents are not the same for all organizations. You determine the applicable documents based on the instructions provided under each document listing (Items 1-4). If the appropriate financial documents are not submitted, your submission is incomplete and may not be eligible for funding.

The following questions are for the applicant.

Accounting Period (Fiscal Year) *

What are the start and end dates for your fiscal year, i.e., the 12-month period that you use for budgeting, and financial reporting?

Character Limit: 30

Annual Budget *

What is your current annual budget?

Required Documents

Item 1 applies to the organization which holds the IRS 501(c)(3) Determination Letter submitted with the grant.

Items 2-4 apply to the applicant.

Reminder: The applicant is the organization delivering services and programs to women and their families in Baltimore City and/or Baltimore County and is applying for the grant.

Note: For all documents, the file name should include the name of the organization and the type of document.

If you do not have a template for budgets or financial statements, templates have been provided for your use. After you have completed the template, save it with the applicant's name in the title, then upload the saved file. If you have your own financial statement form, please compare its format with our templates.

1. Audited Financial Statement OR IRS Form 990 ***

- If available, upload the most recent audited financial statement for the organization providing the IRS 501(c)(3) Determination Letter.

OR

- If you do not have audited financial statements, upload the most recently filed IRS Form 990, 990-EZ, or 990-N for the organization providing the IRS 501(c)(3) Determination Letter. If you have provided an audited financial statement, you do not need to provide a Form 990.

2. Financial Statement for the most recently completed Fiscal Year

The Financial Statement is for the applicant and is required for organizations with budgets under $5 million. (Applicants with budgets of $5 million and over may skip this step). The Financial Statement should include all categories of revenue and expenses and a balance sheet, if available. Your Financial Statement should include as many of the categories in the BWGC Template, as applicable.
